

Flowchart of publishing process

| | | |
|---|--------------|--|
| ⑨ | Chief editor | Notifies the applicant (author) of the compiled report |
|---|--------------|--|

| | | |
|---|-----------------------------------|---|
| ⑩ | Applicant (author/representative) | Revises the manuscript in accordance with the comments in the compiled report, and resubmits the revised manuscript |
|---|-----------------------------------|---|

| | | |
|---|-----------------|--|
| ⑪ | Editorial board | Makes the final decision for publication after reviewing the revised manuscript • The peer review panel examines the revised manuscript. • The final decision is given according to the peer review results. (If further revisions are determined to be required, the board will notify the applicant (author) of the results.) |
|---|-----------------|--|

| | | |
|---|--------------|--|
| ⑫ | Chief editor | Notifies the applicant (author/representative) of the final result |
|---|--------------|--|

| | | |
|---|-----------------------------------|--|
| ⑬ | Applicant (author/representative) | After receiving approval for print, the author makes final revisions and prepares the manuscript data required for printing. |
|---|-----------------------------------|--|

| | | |
|---|--------------------------------|---|
| ⑭ | Submission of final manuscript | Applicant and the University Press staff (chief editor and administrative staff) meet with the publishing company representatives to confirm the following matters. • Confirming contents and data of the manuscript, the publishing schedule, and other specifications for printing |
|---|--------------------------------|---|

| | | |
|---|----------|--|
| ⑮ | Printing | Applicant mainly contributes to the following tasks. Checking print samples, proofreading (first, second, third proof), confirming the design of covers, creating a draft of catchphrases, etc. |
|---|----------|--|

Publication